

Your Google Cloud Solutions Architect Learning Path

Role overview:

Responsible for solving complex business problems using Google Cloud technologies. Google Cloud Solutions Architects translate the technical requirements of a project into the architecture and design of a solution. Works closely with other roles of the technology teams to ensure that the best possible GCP execution is used.

The path should guide learners to achieve the following:

